FULL BIO

Tel K. Ganesan is an Executive Chairman, enterprise builder, investor, and producer. Based in Metro Detroit, he has built and supported businesses, creative projects, and community initiatives across cultures and industries. Kyyba remains the cornerstone of his enterprise-building journey.

Today, Tel focuses his time where founder judgment matters most: enterprise value, consequential relationships, leadership development, selective investment, narrative, and legacy. His work is grounded in a simple belief: possibility becomes durable only when people, systems, and purpose grow together.

Operating Principles

01 See potential before consensus forms.

02 Build the system, not dependence on the founder.

03 Connect worlds with respect.

04 Persist in the purpose; stay flexible about the vehicle.

05 Protect the capacity behind the contribution.

Platforms

Headquartered in Metro Detroit with enterprise operations and film productions spanning North America and India.

Kyyba

Uniting technology, talent and innovation to create real-world value.

Mind Trap

Explores the subconscious beliefs and operational friction that keep high-potential leaders from their next breakthrough. Hosted by Tel K. Ganesan.

Kyyba Films

Film, media and culture: stories that inspire, challenge perspectives and connect people across communities.

Community impact

Three focus areas: Youth and Education Empowerment; Urban Revitalization and Community Support; Enterprise and Founder Mentorship.
